

I listen to K-Love in My town just ouside Denver. I appreciate having a national station because it delivers a very high quality product at a lover financial output. It would be a traic loss if this station would no longer be able to serve this community.